

My Day

Danielle Bradbery

Like a lotus flower growing in the dirt
Ain't nobody ever noticed what its worth
Til the sun shines and the rain falls and
In no time it all is beautiful This is my day, this is my day
Ohhhh, wont let it slip away
Oh, waiting for these changes to say, this is my day There's a voice inside that's trying to be heard, hmmm
And its echoing across the universe
If you listen it'll lead you to that place you've always been running to This is my day, this is my day
Ohhhh, wont let it slip away
Oh, I'm waiting for these changes to say, this is my day I always saw it coming
A little light behind the clouds
This is the start of something
My heart believes it now This is my day, this is my day
Oh, wont let it slip away
Oh, this is my day, this is my day
Oh, wont let it slip away
Oh, I'm waiting for these changes to say
This is my day, this is my day, ohhh
Like a lotus flower growing in the dirt
