

I've Changed

Josh Joplin Group

I wanted perfection from every song I've ever sung
That was wrong
And I wanted something from every person I've ever loved
That was wrongAnd I've changed, I've changed
I've reconsidered everything
I'm fine now, oh I'm fine now
Laid the barrel in my mouthAnd everything I've thought before
I won't think anymore
I've changed, I've changed, I've changedAnd I wanted to be the greatest at everything
But I can't be
And I wanted to be exempt from temptation
But I can't beAnd I've changed, I've changed
I've reconsidered everything
I'm fine now, oh I'm fine now
Laid the barrel in my mouthAnd everything I've thought before
I won't think anymore
I've changed, I've changed, I've changedI wanted your love to be ever lasting
But it isn't
And I wanted life to be an easier proposition
But it isn'tAnd I've changed, I've changed
I've reconsidered everything
I'm fine now, oh I'm fine now
Laid the barrel in my mouthAnd everything I've thought before
I won't think anymore
I've changed, I've changed, I've changed
I've changed, I've changed, I've changed
