taste the tears

Cosima

You're gonna taste the tears
Tears like I cried over you
You're gonna taste, you're gonna taste the tears
Taste the tearsHow could you cause me so much pain
And leave my heart out in the rain
After I gave you everything oh oh
Why did you have to tell me lies
And put these tears here in my eyes
And crush my world with your good-bye oh oh[Chorus:]
You think that you're immune
But someday baby someday soon
You're gonna taste the tears
Tears like I cried over you
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste the tearsWhat did I ever do to you?
To make you treat my heart so cruel
To make you make me such a fool oh oh
One day you'll know just what it's like
Someday someone will say good-bye
One day you'll be the one to cry oh ohAnd when the things you do
All turn around, around on you
You're gonna taste the tears
Tears like I cried over you
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste the tearsYou're gonna know the pain
Same thing that you put me through
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste
You're gonna taste the tears
Taste the tears
Gonna taste the tears
You're gonna know what it's like[Chorus]You're gonna know the pain
Same pain that you put me through
You're gona pay

You're gonna taste the tears, taste the tears
