

Man Without Skin

Boy Hits Car

Can you see the line where the water ends?
Throws itself off into oblivion
As the sky goes so complacent
Then spits a little compassion
Dusk approaches the city's carnivorous
Monster sweat like it wants to eat us
And devour everything but this mouth
Sings of the glorious feeders
Tucked deep inside the wraths of blood
Everywhere it seems like there's a memory
Sometimes memories kill me
As I travel the avenues and the streets
And shadow valleys of this fuckin' city
Everyday it seem to love a little less
Seemed enough to chew on my calmness
And drive me to the end of myself
Where rivers dispose of me
You're like a man without skin
Everything that touches seems to hurt him
And he says maybe I'm just a person
But I'll be for you if you let me
All I want is animals to be free
Run around and fuck right out in the street
Maybe they are gonna want to eat me
But I'll try not to take it personally
And is there no love in this city?
Can someone have just a little pity?
You're like a man without skin
Everything that touches seems to hurt him
And he says maybe I'm just a person
But I'll be for you if you let me
Just like a man without skin
Everything he sees seems to touch him
And he says, as the water washes over me
I'll stand alone let God make it trade
Come on baby penetrate me
You go so deep, so deep in me
Is there no love, in this city
Can someone have just a little pity?

'Cause we're tucked deep inside the wraths of blood
We're tucked deep inside the wraths of blood
You're like a man without skin
Everything that touches seems to hurt him
And he says baby I'm just a person
But I'll be for you if you let me
Just like a man without skin
Everything he sees seems to touch him
And he says that the one who watches over me
I'll stand alone let God make it trade
Penetrate me
Penetrate me
Can you see the line where the water ends?
Throws itself off into oblivion
As the sky goes so complacent
Then spits a little compassion

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>