My Funeral

Dark Funeral

"At the end of this long and lonely path,
All misery will be gone"Down this long and twining road
I walk with heavy feet
My head sunk down below
I have made up my mind
It's time to end this life
Then peace I will findWalking down to my funeral
The mortal sin...
Some might be sad
I'll die with a grin
Walking down to my funeral
It's time to die
When I leave this pathetic world
I will hold my head highAngels are watching from above
As so does the evil ones
That lurks down below...I am almost there - at my funeralI reach the end of the twining road
I put a bullet in my gun, don't need to reload
Feel the cold steel to my head
It's time to pull the trigger
Soon I'll be deadNow when I'm at my funeral
I feel so free
Some might be sad
I'll die with a grin
Now I'm at my funeral
I feel so free
The mortal sin...
Sin...Angels and demons
Reach out for me
Kingdom's wide open,
But I walk away from - theeAs I walk away..."For eternal in twilight I dwell"Walking down to my funeral
The mortal sin...
Some might be sad
I'll die with a grin
Walking down to my funeral
It's time to die
When I leave this pathetic world
I will hold my head highHold my head high...
