

Braid (Gorje Hewek & Izhevski re-touch)

Gem Club

Eyes cast into the night
Searching for someone
You needn't stare so long
It's time enough for us
To fall into dreams No hands covering your kiss
Everything is heaven
The surface never stops
The sky was all lit up
The stars in grey shout out
To carry in my love There's a sound, of years
All alone, all alone
And i look, through your tears
I lost, my hold
Say to me, say to me
I am yours, I am yours
