

Back In My Arms

Silk

You used to say
You mess with me I would be sayin sorry
But I would never listen to you
Now I'm paying for it
Baby love please forgive me
So many days of leaving messages on your answering machine
Sometime I thought of dropping by but you'd probably make a scene
I can't understand why you're so mean to me[Chorus]
Baby I want you back in my arms again
In my arms again
Baby I need you back in my arms again
I need you in my arms again Are you the type of girl who likes to say I told you so
I learned my lesson
Tell me what are you trying to prove
Girl I miss you
I'm realizing that I never should have let you go
I made a decision when I was unsure
How could I be so immature[Chorus] We used to laugh, we used to kiss while dancing in the rain
I want to laugh, I want to dance, I want to kiss and still be your man
I messed it up by giving someone else your wedding ring
I want to make, I want to make, I want to make it up to you girl
I'll say I'm sorry if you tell me you could ease the pain
I was insane, I was insane, I was insane to ever let you go
Now I know, that you reap what you sow[Chorus]
