Company You Keep

Randy Rogers Band

Guess you've heard by now that I've decided
Well, I'm not gonna waste any more time on you
It was quite a flame that we've ignited
It's too bad that you had such a hard time staying true
I don't know where all this trouble started
Yeah, when we jumped, I guess I sank too deep
I don't hold it against the way we parted
I just blame it on the company you keep
Don't blame me if I don't send you roses anymore
Don't blame me if I don't kiss your hand and hold the door
Well, there's just too many others and I hate to compete
So, honey, when I'm gone you can blame it on the company you keep Well, I had to watch your promises expire
Like a coupon in the Sunday classifieds
I use to cry but now I'm just too damn tired
One thing is for sure, can't say I never tried
Don't blame me if I don't send you roses anymore
Don't blame me if i don't kiss your hand and hold the door
Well there's just too many others and I hate to compete
So, honey, when I'm gone you can blame it on the company you keep
So, honey, when I'm gone you can blame it on the company you keep

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/