

As Bad As This

Styx

Written by john curulewski

Did you ever in your life before
 Feel as bad as this?
Did you ever in good time think
 My life had gone amiss?
Now I feel I've been unfair
'cause I catch you hanging there.
Did you ever in your life before
 Feel as bad as this?
God knows I tried a half a year
 But it didn't do no good.
My damndest try to make it work,

 I knew it never would.
Now there's nothin' wrong with you,
And there's nothing you could ever do.
 God knows I tried a half a year
 But it didn't do no good.
 The times were good,
 But over now,
 A pleasant memory.
I'm sorry, there's another face
 One that's close to me.
You know 'bout what I learned
And there's no stone left unturned.
 The times were good,
 But over now,
A pleasant memory. (sigh)
