Sulk

Trust

Fold your heels and skip them wise
Honestly, I can't take tonight
Here's living proof on my fingertips
When you melt beside I know you're itEverybody wanted calm, everybody wanted scenes
I pray to my sulk
Everybody wanted calm, everybody wanted means
With fists to the ground
Everybody wanted calm, everybody wanted me
I'm safe with my sulk
Everybody wanted calm, everybody wanted meansNow I fill up without weight of warmthMoving your hips too literal
Deem him high, he's bound to fall
Heart and soul like I knew you would
When you say "love" it sounds so goodEverybody wanted calm, everybody wanted scenes
I pray to my sulk
Everybody wanted calm, everybody wanted means
With fists to the ground
Everybody wanted calm, everybody wanted me
I'm safe with my sulk
Everybody wanted calm, everybody wanted meansNow I fill up without weight of warmth
It's not too wrong to let it blow(ride the radio and dance to fall)
