Fiction (dreams In Digital)

Orgy

She's lost in coma where it's beautiful
Intoxicated from the deep sleep, deep sleep
Do you wonder what it's like living in a permanent imagination
Sleeping to escape reality, but you like it like thatI guilty by design, she's nothing more than fiction
She dreams in digital, 'cause it's better than nothing
Now that control is gone, it seems unreal
She's dreaming in digital, well she's dreams in digitalAnd your pixel army can't save you now, my finger's on the kill switch
I remember I used to compose your dreams, control your dreams
And don't be afraid to expose yourself before I shut you down
You made some changes since the virus caught you sleepingI guilty by design, she's nothing more than fiction
She dreams in digital, 'cause it's better than nothing
Now that control is gone and it seems unreal
She's dreaming in digitalWell 'cause it's better than nothing
Now that control is gone, it seems unreal
She's dreaming in digital, well she dreams in digitalOh, she dreams in digital
She's guilty by design
'Cause it's better than nothing
Now that control is gone, it seems unreal
She's dreaming in digitalShe's nothing more than fiction
'Cause it's better than nothing
Now that control is gone, it seems unreal
She's dreaming in digital
