Tomorrow Is Heartbreak

Lagwagon

Bitter exit it must feel better Holding that grudge
It's a feeling so familiar Not unlike love
Unrequited she's scarred in hatred
Yesterday's moving Yesterday's moving
It's easier to locate A better nest
Tell them you never lived in such a mess
Emily at her best in black Reminds them all to stand back
At a distance they won't notice the act All that she lacks
You can see up close she's bitter Remembering wasted dinners
Can't expect the creep to stay long But he's not the one who pissed her off
Today is denial Today is denial
It's easier if she won't See him again
He's just another trip best forgotten
Emily may be odd But she always gets even
It's not unlike love
Emily will find him again Another short-term boyfriend
Emily you'll always be alone
Tomorrow is heartbreak Tomorrow is heartbreak
So bitter ex I'm sorry Sorry I bit that hook
I'm just a bad clich in your black book
