

God Is Enough (ft. Flame & Jai (Keyz Beatz Remix)

Lecrae

We so impressed
With them ladies
Who be drivin' Mercedes
Who be drivin' them crazy
And we got to be crazy
We so impressed
With them fellas
Who be makin' them jealous
Who be makin' them stellars
And we got to be crazy
I'm so impressed
On the throne
Who left His heavenly Home
Never did anything wrong
They crucified Him on
On a tree, there He made
It was crazy how it set the stage
For His resurrection from the grave, that gets me amazed
You can be the fliest man
With a hundred-grand in your hand
Swag right, sag tight
And a Gucci fan
You can be the richest, be the smartest, be the hardest, all of that
But I guarantee before i die they all are fallin' flat
Used to want a lot of things
All the stuff that's on TV
Education, cars and clothes
Fashion lights, and jewelery
Focused on the wrong stuff) Now I got my eyes on You and now i know that God is enough
God is enough
God is enough
You are enough
Never too much
More than enough
God is enough
You are enough for me
Party, like the fast-life
Partly, it's the last flight
Chasin' all your dreams, this right here where it's your last night
And then you finally got your cash right
But it never seems to last, right?

You know you sick of lookin, sick of chasin'
I think you know the Truth, you just don't want to face it
Your life is empty, tho' you havin' fun
You never satisfied, you never get enough
You go from thrill seekin', to pill-poppin'
From heavy drinkin', to club-hoppin'
You just can't stop it, like you're a slave
And you chasin' nothin' all the way down into the grave
Used to want a lot of things
All the stuff that's on TV
Education, cars and clothes
Fashion lights, and jewelery
Focused on the wrong stuff) Now I got my eyes on You and now i know that Lord is my Sheppard, I shall not want
Takes away my fears, You restores my soul
Off into the sky, To dead and Christ arise
To be with You forever, see with the clearest eyes
Push my inner thirst to somethin' more in life
No money, cars, relationships compare to joy in Christ
Love to work that selfish ways, that like to flirt will self destruct
No need to strut, know what I want, know how to get it, but my God's enough!
