

Behind a Painted Smile

The Isley Brothers

Whenever you're near I hide my tears
Behind a painted smile
You can't imagine the tears and sorrow
Behind a painted smile My life's a masquerade
A world of let's pretend, yeah
Since you took your love
Pretending never ends, dear But I can't let you know
That I still need you so, no Darling I hide the tears that I cry
Whenever you're near I hide my tears
Behind a painted smile
You can't imagine the tears and sorrow
Behind a painted smile I can't let you see
All the tears I'm crying
You would pity me
That would be like dying If I can't have your love
I don't need your sympathy Darling I hide the tears that I cry
Whenever you're near I hide my tears
Behind a painted smile
You can't imagine the tears and sorrow
Behind a painted smile My life is a masquerade
Since you took your love away
Whenever you're near I hide my tears
I just can't let you see
How much you hurting me
Whenever you're near I hide my tears
Behind a painted smile
