

Freedom Rings

Overkill

Blast off bang bang power trip
Just to set that world afire
God looked down an unapproving frown
Said get those boys up higher
They got nothin' more than what they're living
Out there where freedom ringin'
As I rolled down the window and flicked my butt
I could hear him singing Freedom rings into your heart
Tears you apart from the start freedom
Freedom rings right to your soul taking a hold so it goes
Freedom rings into your heart
Tears you apart from the start freedom
Freedom rings right to the soul taking a hold
Hear them singin' freedom ringin' freedom will ring Tailspin down down down we go
On the darker side of night
We held on tight like flags in a hurricane Waitin' for the daylight
We had nothing more than what we were
My fingernails were clingin'
As I tightened my grip caught my breath
I still heard him singin'
Hang on tight it's all right
Out where freedom's ringin' Freedom rings into your heart
Tears you apart from the start freedom
Freedom rings right to your soul taking a hold so it goes
Freedom rings into your heart
Tears you apart from the start freedom
Freedom rings right to the soul taking a hold
Hear them singin' freedom ringin' freedom will ring Here we go no one knows out where freedom ringin'
Hang on tight it's all right out where freedom ringin'
Here we go no one knows out where freedom's ringin'
Hang on tight it's all right hang on tight it's all right The beaches blew the warnin'
The boys faced her on the sand
She's a goddamn demon she's an evil bitch
And she slaps you with an iron hand
Now we ain't ones for runnin'
And we don't know right from wrong
So we stared down into the eye of the beast
Stood fuckin' Jersey strong that's right She's comin' comin' comin' comin' she's a hurricane

She's ringin' ringin' ringin' ringin' all the children say
Come on down where ya hear the sound
To where the sky will meet the water
Come on down we always been around
Even through the slaughter
She's comin' comin' comin' comin' she's a hurricane
She's ringin' ringin' ringin' ringin' all the children say Freedom rings into your heart
Tears you apart from the start freedom
Freedom rings right to your soul taking a hold so it goes
Freedom rings into your heart
Tears you apart from the start freedom
Freedom rings right to the soul taking a hold
Hear them singin' freedom ringin' freedom will ring
