

Gates

Wolfsheim

alone ... but you're feeling alright it's a lie, you're feeling good because strange men want you to easy way to run away from yourself it's a lie, no-one gets out of here alive and everyone feels happy everyone feels great today ... walking through these gates wake up my dear ... it's killing day betrayed and kissed goodbye live your life, don't think about the reasons for it all following the line that never ends the moon is looking down at fool's who always fail and everyone feels happy...
