

Loyal Friend And Thoughtful Lover

The Wind and the Wave

My daddy always used to take me down to kiddie park
Farris wheels and roller coasters all 'bout to fall apart
Well i'm all grown up now, 25 years old and on my own
Moved in with the boyfriend see and i'm rarely going home
My daddy always used to say be careful where you step
Them cracks is gonna break your back, the government's gonna get Every cent you ever earn in life, so don't expect a lot
Eat all the food up on your plate, what you get is what you got
See, I know life isn't fair or free
Never turn your back on family
And even though you love me, let me be
I'm sure, I don't need you anymore
It don't work like that, abandon everything you used to know
I can't learn from your mistakes, I gotta make them on my own
All the hurt you wanna save, what'll make me who I am
Loyal friend and thoughtful lover, won't take shit from any man
See, I know life isn't fair or free
Never turn your back on family
And even though you love me, let me be
I'm sure, I don't need you anymore
Oh how time has changed your little girl
And see, I know love isn't all you need
And money never grew from any tree
And even though you love me, let me be
I'm sure, I don't need you anymore
I know life isn't fair or free and I'll never turn my back on family, i'm sure
