

Hotel

Tori Amos

Met him in a hotel
Met him in a hotel
Beneath ground Tell me that he's missing
Tell me this is his one for Lollipop Gestapo You were wild
Where are you now?
You were wild
Where are you now? Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me more I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash down
I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash Met him in a hotel
Met him in a hotel
You say he's the biggest thing
There'll be this year I guess that
What I'm seeking
I guess that
What I'm seeking, isn't here Met him in a hotel
Met him in a guess world
Guessed anyone but you You were wild
Where are you now?
You were wild
Where are you now? Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me
Can't you give?
Give me more, give me more
Give me more I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash down
I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash Where are the velvets?
Where?
Where are the velvets?
When you're coming, coming down Where are the velvets?
Where?
Where are the velvets?
When you're coming, coming down You were wild
Where are you now?

Aah haa you were wild
Where are you now?
You were wildKing Solomon's mines
Exit seventy five
I'm still alive
I'm still alive
I'm still alive
