In the Rising Sun

Nicotine

I open my eyes
I get up in sunshine
I look in the mirror
My sadness behind
I saw my face
I can't believe my eyes
Everything's blown in the windI close my eyes
I search for my lies
I look for my sentence
That I can't deny
I confess my sins in front
Of myself in the screen
Can't you believe?Deep in the dark
Can you see the light?
What's in your mind?
I can see you're lying
Let's make a promise
To regain our courage
I can try with youIn the rising sun
I'm sure you'll
Find the hero
In the rising sun
You'll find the
Right direction
In the rising sun
Where I can be a hero
In the rising sun
A burning soul inside
