

The Thoughts of Mary Jane

Nick Drake

Who can know
The thoughts of Mary Jane
Why she flies
Or goes out in the rain Where she's been
And who she's seen
In her journey to the stars Who can know
The reason for her smile
What are her dreams
When they've journeyed for a mile The way she sings
And her brightly colored rings
Make her the princess of the sky Who can know
What happens in her mind
Did she come from a strange world
Leave her mind behind Her long lost sighs
And her brightly colored eyes
Tell her story to the wind Who can know
The thoughts of Mary Jane
Why she flies
Goes out in the rain Where she's been
And who she's seen
In her journey to the stars
