

Shed (Nervous Energies Session)

Title Fight

You're cold
Like the blood that runs through your veins
I've been told
There's a black spot next to your name
That you can't seem to erase
Shed your skin
Change your face But you're all the same
You're all the same Shed your skin
Find a better body to fit in I've lost track
Of all the times you've betrayed
I've lost faith
In the friendships I have made
I'd drag you down and put you in your place
Shed your skin
Change your face
