Antonia Jane

Lightning Dust

Did you ever come close to home
Riding the tide of the super one
Did you just want the ribbon and goals
Never fall back to the one you love

Pickpocket lady with her mind on you
She?ll break a million houses till she makes it through
But I declare a war on you
Someday soon

I need some help, this is a hard song to understand the lyrics with all that drenched, reverb on her vocals. I think the first two stanzas are pretty close though. Pretty easy song to play though. Love these guys!
