Tell Me What You Want

Inna Vision

The sun has come up and the time is here
I stare into your room and see that your still not there I'm reflecting the parametics, and it's all falling apart Your heart stands still, but time moves on Whoever thought that it could go wrong It's infectious and pathetic and we're all falling apart

Tell me what you want, tell me what you need
I tried to help, but you won't let me
be the one to change your mind is it so hard to see
Tell me what you want, tell me what you need
I tried to help, but you help let me
be the one to change your mind
it's hard to believe

The screams rang out throught the night once he fell and the knife runs deep, like a needle casted spell I'm reflecting when I said it and you were falling apart you grabbed your keys and closed the door on the life that you didn't wana live anymore It's infectious yet poetic you have fallen apart

Don't fade away, I won't turn the page Don't fade away...

I'll do anything just to make you breathe

Tell me what you want, tell me what you need
I tried to help, but you won't let me
be the one to change your mind
is it so hard to see
Tell me what you want, tell me what you need
I tried to help, but you help let me
be the one to change your mind
it's hard to believe

(Don't fade away)
Tell me, that you're watching over me Tell me, you're watching over me
