Beautiful Eulogy

limited in mind,
limited in body,
ruler of our own domain claim false authority like we're the ones who rule and reign the mentality of the majority is more than metaphorically morphing into a misinformed form of who we were born to be torn between blind perception and defined reality toward what it seems all dreams are built on faulty foundation of fallacy this'll be our fatality it's simply a formality see the casualty of war laid on the floor of the battle scene we worship how we feel we don't worship Who we should yeah we got it bad, and if God calls it bad, we call it good we covet what others have grab whatever we can whatever we want
we think it belongs in the palm of our hands going along with a song and dance worshipping idols to fulfil our entitlement issues addicted to the feeling we get when we get what we want so we pick and we choose even the air we breathe is a gift we receive that we think we're entitled to even the air we breathe is a gift we receive that we think we're entitled to they say you get what you deserve so we work hard to earn it earn as much as we can to determine our self-worth and purpose identified by what we buy it's a sad state of affairs and when we die we lose it all and just lay there naked and bare but none of this stuff can cover us no it never was enough for us nothing we can work for to obtain can wash away the stain the only thing we're entitled to is judgment for the lives we're living there's nothing we can hide behind in the end, we need grace instead-- end video, audio continues --we spend a lifetime trying to find love in anything and everything this life has to offer, it's true and oftentimes we trade the temporal satisfaction for the things the genuine believer is entitled to I'm convinced that it's because they don't understand that they exist in order of benefits of redemption that is supplied to His bride and the basis for His choice in election was for God alone to decide and it's not like an invitation that one might accept or reject but rather it's the affectual calling drawing to Himself His elect regenerating and enabling us to respond in faith towards Christ giving us the gift of repentance revealing the nature of His sacrifice binding us with the true intellectual realization of our sinful condition converting us and turning us from our previous malicious disposition ultimately leading to a legal declaration by God that we've been made right in His sight justification being credited to us on the basis of the righteousness of Christ adopted to be children of God, and grafted into fellowship being bound together by the blood of Christ into a common membership sanctified by the Spirit given gradual growth in holiness increasing in our thinking and behaving in ways that shows that we're chosen, and all the while being preserved, and upheld according to His sovereign providence giving us confidence that He'll carry us to completion just like He promised
