

If I'm Saying Nothing

Landon Pigg

If I'm saying nothing
Won't you let me speak?
If I'm saying nothing
Won't you let me in? The truth of what we have is Blowing through the trees
The wind needs no explaining
Neither do we Love breathes silence
I love everything about you Never would I dare to Break this sacred silence
For luminous is our love
In the peace and quiet And I can feel your presence
Sitting in the same room
For me it is enough to
Look up and see you Love breathes silence
I love everything about you Love, love is forever
Love is forever, say it again
Love is forever, say it again
Love is forever, say it again Love is forever, say it again
Love is forever, say it again
Love is forever, say it again
Love is forever
