Why Don't You Stay

Summer Camp

Willow trees,
Layin' in the summer breeze.
Lost my wallet and my keys.
Now those nights are buzzing in everyday,
And I wish I said Baby why don't you stay, why don't you stay, why don't you stay?Think back to the summer, days went on forever.
And we thought we'd never, never get old.
We stayed out all night,
And knew by then and I wish I said Baby why don't you stay, why don't you stay, why don't you stay?Think back to the summer,
Days went on forever,
And we thought we'd never, never get old.Think back to the summer,
They said it was over.
Bet we said we'd never, never get old.Now I can't recall the color of your eyes,
And I wish I said goodbye.Think back to the summer,
Days went on forever.
And we thought we'd never, never get old.Think back to the summer they said it was over,
But we swore we'd never, never get old.
