

No Mercy

Racoon

She walks in and says: "Come on, let's have it"
Brings out the worst that you can be
It's a good day for a bad habit
And don't you dare to disagree
She likes the surf along
Cheap bastard thinks he's something groovy
Straight down from church, you wanna bet?
She'll play him like some kind of movie
Then smokes the last of his cigarettes
She's got no mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for no king
No mercy for no king
She picks his heart like it's a pocket
She wears her hair like it's a crown
She sees straight through all his cool poses
She'll hold the leash. Good dog, stay down
She's got no mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
No mercy for the king
Wow, there won't be any mercy
Not unless you've got a diamond ring
Oh no there won't be no 'excuse me'
No mercy for the king of everything
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
no mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the king
No mercy for no soldiers
No mercy for no king
No mercy, oh no mercy
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for the soldiers
No mercy for no king
No mercy for no king
