

Good Guys Don't Wear White

Minor Threat

[POOR MEMORY--SORRY]

i'm a bored boy born in the road some say my manners ain't the best some of my friends they've been in a whole lot of trouble some say i'm no better than the rest but tell your mama and your papa sometimes good guys don't wear white everyday i work hardat night i spend a restless [?] time with those rich kids and their lazy money you can't hold a candle too long [?]
but tell your mama and your papa sometimes good guys don't wear whitegood guys bad guys which is which?
the white collar worker or digger in the ditch man who's to say who's the better man of those two i do the best i can you thought i had a dirty mindall the messed up chicks all the changing times white filth and easy living you can't come come close to the love that i've given
but tell your mama and your papa
