

Waiting For Your Love

Alicia Keys

There's no other way
That I would want someone to hold me
Show me like you, falling in a daze
So many ways, I'm in amazement
Thinking about you, no one took the time
To hold my mind, and be the kind
That I could talk to, this is the type of day
That I must say, I've been looking forward to
Look at me shedding no tears
No worries followed by fear
So good that soon you'll be here
They just don't know how good it feels
Feels so good to not be searching
Searching just to find that someone
Feels so good to not be searching
Knowing that I found that right one
I'm waiting for your love
Waiting for your love
I'm waiting for your love
Waiting for your love
Talking on the phone
When I'm alone, I'm in the zone
And tempted to touch you
Nothing ever fades
The way you take time for me
It makes me want you, call it what you want
It may be wrong but baby I'm your fool
I can verify that you're my type
The things we try that others just won't do
Look at me shedding no tears
No worries followed by fear
So good that soon you'll be here
They just don't know how good it feels
Feels so good to not be searching
Searching just to find that someone
Feels so good to not be searching
Knowing that I found that right one
I'm waiting for your love
Waiting for your love

I'm waiting for your love
Waiting for your love
