Heaven

Glass House Point

Black is the sea as the water sings to the creatures beneath my feet

Bright is the sun as the light stings my sweat drenched wings

Iâ€™ve been searching for heaven and Iâ€™m getting closer, getting closer
By your side

Iâ€™ve been searching for heaven
and I just feel like falling into your sky

Sheâ€™s got dark lips, a beautiful mind
Sheâ€™s gotta fervor that thatâ€™s turning the tides
I said you know that your running me back to you
I know that I want to feel you closer

To me you beautiful being, I wanna breathe in the breath that you breathe
I wanna, feel god with you in my heart
Until I tear you and heaven apart

Dark is the night as the moon howls for itâ€™s daughters and sons

Black are my lungs because Iâ€™ve been breathing in all of your love

Iâ€™ve been searching for heaven
and Iâ€™m getting closer, getting closer
By your side

and I just feel like falling into your sky

Sheâ€™s got dark lips, a beautiful mind
Sheâ€™s gotta fervor that thats turning the tides
I know that I want to feel you closer

To me you beautiful being, I wanna
breathe in the breath that you breathe
I wanna, feel god with you in my heart
Until I tear you and heaven apart

Iâ€™m breathing in the clouds like smoke just to keep myself awake surrendering my soul to yours just to keep from being alone

Iâ€™m getting higher with every breathe with every burn, with ever taste with every truth, with every lie that we make

Sheâ€™s got dark lips, a beautiful mind
Sheâ€™s gotta fervor that thats turning the tides
I know that I want to feel you closer

To me you beautiful being, I wanna
breathe in the breath that you breathe
I wanna, feel god with you in my heart
Until I tear you and heaven apart.

Until I tear you and heaven apart.
Until I tear you and heaven apart.
Until I tear you and heaven apart.
Until I tear you... I tear you apart.
