

Run

King's X

Yeah, she told me that if I wasn't good
He would get me, make me pay for everything I did
And she said that everybody bad would burn in Hell
I did what she told me and I became someone else
I had to run, I had to hide in the world outside
A better chance out there if God is everywhere
I wait for nothing, take my chances let it ride
Maybe there's an answer but it's buried by the lies
Somebody told me that it's just a waste of my time
But I can't get rid of all those bags I left behind

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>