

Dead to Me

The Dreaming

You think you're crawling back where you don't belong. Too late, can't come back home.
It's all or nothing, there's nowhere in between. Stand up, get off your knees.

*Chorus*

You're nothing, you're no one, you're dead to me.
You're nothing, you're no one, you're dead to me.
I don't fucking need you anymore, you are dead to me.
You're nothing, you're no one, you are dead. You are dead.

You crave the one thing you know you'll never have. Refuse to be denied.
You mark the last time the life you've left behind. Too late, you can't turn back time.

*Chorus*

You're nothing, you're no one, you're dead to me.
You're nothing, you're no one, you're dead to me.
I don't fucking need you anymore, you are dead to me.
You're nothing, you're no one, you are dead. You are dead.

You are dead. You mean nothing to me anymore. You mean nothing to me anymore.

*Chorus*

You're nothing, you're no one, you're dead to me.
You're nothing, you're no one, you're dead to me.
I don't fucking need you anymore, you are dead to me.
You're nothing, you're no one, you are dead.

You're nothing, you're no one, you are dead. You are dead. You are dead.
