

Goodnight Kiss

Dream Theater

Goodnight kiss in your nightgown
Lavender in your bed
So innocent as you lie down
Sweet dreams that run through your head
Are you lonely without mommy's love?
I want you to know I'd die for that moment
You're just a poor girl afraid of this cruel world
Taken away from it all
It's been five years to the day and
My tainted blood's still the same
Can't help acting this way and
Those bastard doctors are gonna pay
I'm so lonely without baby's love
I want you to know I'd die for one more moment
I'm just a poor girl afraid of this cruel world
Taken away from it all
