

Beloved

Luscious Jackson

Saw you by the avenue, selling ends and means
Full of incidents and schemes
When you lied and when you lagged
You were such a drag but I loved you like a friend
Beloved
 Make it feel like summer
 Make it feel like summertime
 Beloved
 I'm coming undone sonny
In the danger of the ride
I liked to lie out in the wind calling love and sin
 Sympathetic pharmacies
I tried to make it right, coming straight from Hell
Preacher without a prayer for myself
Beloved
 Make it feel like summer
 Make it feel like summertime
 Beloved
 I'm coming undone sonny
 In the danger of the ride
