Ashes in April

Kill Your Name

All alone,Â side by side, I saw the distance, in your eyes
This story is so disturbing... that festival of sin
Stole your soul

Lie!, Justify, Caterize, All these wounds that u gave me
Goodbye, no surprise, tell those lies, always knew you were pretending
Rise, stay alive, change my life
This growing darkness has consumed me
The things you said, the love you gave
I always knew you were pretending

Â so it seems this is my destiney
My dying heart,Â without you...bleeds
You pulled me out of misery, made me feel like I was worth something

Lie!, Justify, Caterize, All these wounds that u gave me
Goodbye, no surprise, tell those lies, always knew you were pretending
Rise, stay alive, change my life
The growing darkness has consumed me
The things you said, the love you gave
I always knew you were pretending

We fall around the fire that we burn, and catch the tears that we cry, to douse the flames for Ashes in april
It's started again
You killed the growing dark in my soul,
Then broke my smile and let go,
And greyed the skies, with Ashes in April
Hell's started again

We fall around the fire that we burn, and catch the tears that we cry, to douse the flames for Ashes in april
It's started again

You killed everything that I was, darkness has found my soul again,Â my tears that rain cause, ashes in April,
Hell's started again

Your never coming home
Never come home
