

Comin' Home

Deep Purple

My mama showed me how to rock in the cradle
But I learned how to roll along
My papa said, "Son, gotta get some fun
'Cos when you're old, it ain't too good on your own" Been so long, since you heard my song
Gonna pick up my guitar an' play
Felt so bad when I had to leave you
But I knew that I'd be back some day So I'm comin' home
To give you more than you bargained for
Comin' home
No mistake, I'm gonna shiver an' shake Comin' home
Gonna rock 'n' roll an' give you my soul
Comin' home
I got over the pain I'm comin' home again Grooving to American Bandstand
B.B. on stage with 'Lucille'
The thrill is gone but, it won't be for long
'Cos you know I like to play how I feel Now that we're all back together
Gonna shiver 'n' shake all night
Just gotta say the music I play
Will sure enough make you feel alright Though I learned how to rock in the cradle
An' rollin' came so easy to me
All the years I traveled the world
Made it so clear to see It's been so long since you heard my song
Gonna pick up my guitar an' play
Felt so bad when I had to leave you
But I knew that I'd be back some day Comin' home
Give you more than you bargained for
Comin' home
No mistake, I'm gonna shiver an' shake Comin' home
Gonna rock 'n' roll and give you my soul
Comin' home
I got over the pain, I'm comin' home again Comin' home
Shiver an' shakin' anticipatin'
Comin' home
The thrill is gone but it won't be for long
Comin' home
