

She's the Devil

Terminal Choice

she looks like an angel from heaven sent her beauty paralyzed your mind her body is perfect she smiles at you you are trapped in your own dreams she gives you everything you need but she hurts you all the time she tortures your soul she wishes you in a cage and she never lets you out she's the devil in disguise see the seduction in her eyes she makes you happy for this night but she will destroy your life she's the devil she's a whore she doesn't care about your soul she takes everything she gets the bitch is sleeping in your bed
