

In the Water

Run River North

Dead in the water, still I remember your Word
Spoke of a king- Father I never was!
Off in the distance they're beckoning me
Collecting my fears I'm trembling Just above the water, my eyes open now
I see the King, but the vision's pulling me down
Off in the distance they're beckoning me
I'm fearless somehow but I'm drowning Oh I'm falling
Yes I'm falling
Oh I'm falling
Yes I'm falling Stir it up to a swell inside my chest
Feel it now, the calm, leaving my breath
Shake it out, shake it out! My bones are rattling
Cold skin, covering a hole that's open now Stir it up to a swell inside my chest
Feel it now, the calm, leaving my breath
Shake it out, shake it out! My bones are rattling
Cold skin, covering a hole that's open now There in the water, still I remember
