Memphis In June

John Eaton

Memphis in June
A shady veranda
Under a Sunday blue sky
Memphis in June
And Cousin Amanda
Makin' a rhubarb pie
I can hear the clock inside
Tickin' and tockin'
Everything is peacefully dandy
I can see old Granny cross the street still a rockin'
Watchin' the neighbors go by
Memphis and June
And sweet oleander
Blowing perfume in the air
Up jumps a moon to make it
That much grander
It's paradise
brother take my advice
Nothing's half as nice as Memphis in June
...
... (Piano Solo) ...
...
Memphis and June
And sweet oleander
Blowing perfume in the air
Up jumps a moon to make it
That much grander
It's paradise
brother take my advice
Nothing's half as nice as Memphis in June
...
