Who

Edith Frost

Don't encourage me
I'll do anything
I want to be loving
Who I want to be lovingI can't wait to see
Circumstances changing over
For the chosen few
I want to be loving
Who I want to be lovingI'll say anything
It's almost impossible
To a stranger
I want to be loving
Who I want to be loving
Who I want to be loving
Who I want to be loving
