Cheryl Tweedy

Lily Allen

I wish I had one good reason

Why I should stay

How'd I get myself into this place?I wish had qualities like sympathy

Fidelity, sobriety, sincerity

Humility, instead I got lunacy

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahI wish I could fit myself in my pocket

And tie myself to a rocket

And send myself to outer space

I wish I had a different face

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahI wish I had one good reason

Why I should stay

How'd I get myself into this place? I wish my life was a little less seedy

Why am I always so greedy?

Wish I looked just like Cheryl Tweedy

I know I never will, I know I never willI wish my life was not so boring

Every weekend four to the flooring

Don't get me started on Monday morning

It would be overkill, it would be overkill wish I had one good reason

Why I should stay

How'd I get myself into this place? I wish I could apologize be dignified

Wish I could look you in the eye

And tell you that I never lied

I wish that I could stop the cries

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahDon't wake me up today

Under my duvet's where I wanna stay

Don't wanna come out to play

Doesn't matter what you say anyway, anywayI wish my life was a little less seedy

Why am I always so greedy?

Wish I looked just like Cheryl Tweedy

I know I never will, I know I never willI wish my life was not so boring

Every weekend four to the flooring

Don't get me started on Monday morning

It would be overkill, it would be overkillOh, I wish I didn't smoke so many cigarettes

Another program on antiques on the TV set

Wish I had blond hair, wish I had green eyes

So many things about myself that I despise

(I wish my life was a little less seedy)So many things about my life that I despise

(I wish my life was a little less seedy)

So many things that I despise

(I wish my life was a little less seedy) So many things that I despise

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/