Get Your X

Nivea

Tried to keep it cool with your ex. tried to keep it cool with your ex
But I know what happens next, and man I'm gonna get her, get her, get her
Why she be callin you at 3 in the mornin like we all cool and shit
Acting all big and bad poppin out the grill like she gon' do some shit
Late night she be ridin' by, with nothing but the jealousy in her eye
Think it wont go down cause the girl is fly, think twice cause I'm tellin you right now, right now
(Chorus)
You better get her, you better get her
It wont be long before I do something wrong to the girl
You better get her, you better get her
And it wont be long, next time I'm going off on the girl
You better get her, you better get her, you better get her
Get her, you better get her, you better get her
Get her, you better get her, you better get her
Get her, you better get her, you better get her
Why she be hittin you on your Sidekick man, acting all rude and shit
Always comin by yo momma's crib bringin her food and shit
I see you at the mall, its goin down

I see you in the club, its goin down
If I see one of your girls, its goin down, down, down, down down down down
Late night she be ridin' by, with nothing but the jealousy in her eye
Think it wont go down cause the girl is fly, think twice cause I'm tellin you right now, right now
(Chorus)
And I dont know who she thinks she is, know who she think I am,
Know what she tryna do, now I'm all in your grill
Comin by where you live, no tellin what I'ma do
Girl when Im finished wit ya, think youre gonna R.E.S.P.E.C.T me
You aint gonna give it to me so I'ma take it from ya
Come on with the drama, come on with the drama
(Chorus)
Boy you better get your ex, you better get your ex, uh huh, uh huh
You better get your ex, I said boy you better get your ex
You better get her
Cause I aint playin, I aint playin, I aint playin with her
