Pentagram

Possessed

Music: MT Lyrics: JB There's a sacred city not far from here Where the earth is bare and the sky is black Tormented souls are stricken with fear and the sinners all know that there's no way back Flying to the pentagram There's a lot you'll want to see Sacrifice the crying Ram And drink the blood with me Giant kingdom down below Where the lord of darkness sits and waits For a poor lost mortal to come in When he lowers down his gates Prison of death where time stands still forever life of pain walking dead assault and kill The people would be slain Solo: LL Solo: MT You can't escape your destiny So take my hand and fly To an evil land of fantasy Inside of satan's eye
