Slow to Blow

Funny Money

I kiss her on the mouth, she melts right in my hand.
Tonight, we'll do it right, more than a one night stand.
Going for a record baby, there's no end in site.
Lay back, enjoy the ride, it's gonna take all night.

She's slow to blow, blow you're mind.
She's slow to blow, takes some time.

Take a trip around the world, flip the hourglass.
She tells me take you're time, slow down you're goin to fast.
Got potential, restart me up, and much to my delight.
Lay back, enjoy the ride, it's gonna take all night.

She's slow to blow, blow you're mind.
She's slow to blow, takes some time.

And time after time, we kick it in to overdrive.
Tonight's the night, we're having the time of our lives.

She's slow to blow, blow you're mind.
She's slow to blow, takes some time.
She's slow to blow, bumps and grinds.
She's slow, slow to blow.

Ahhh yea, it was an all night love-a-thon.
were I had to rise to the occasion.
I was a man on a mission, in the missionary position.
I said, come on baby, just let it go.
She said, uh oh, look out below, she's about to blow!
