

Lost In Limbo

Ace Frehley

The party's over in the morning light
My head is spinning, lost my appetite
Barkin' dog, much too loud
Chuck him a bone and get me outta this town
Voices I hear I can't explain
These neon lights they hurt my brain
Feeling no pain, my body's numb
From hell's kitchen to kingdom come
Not feeling happy, not feeling sad
Not feeling anything, good or bad
I'm not in heaven, I'm not in hell
This must be limbo, now can't you tell, can't you tell, c'mon
Lost, lost in limbo
We're just lost, lost in limbo
Baby, we're just lost, lost in limbo
With nowhere to go
The morning after is such a bore
Can't even focus on the kitchen floor
Telephone, please don't ring
Wanna forget about everything
Not feeling happy, not feeling sad
Not feeling anything, good or bad
I'm not in heaven, I'm not in hell
This must be limbo, now can't you tell, can't you tell
Lost, lost in limbo
We're just lost, lost in limbo
We're just lost, lost in limbo
Baby, we're just lost, lost in limbo
There's nowhere to go, nothin' to see
Feelin' no pain, it must be, it must be limbo
Limbo lower now, how you doin' [Incomprehensible]
