All That Glitters

Omd

All that glitters is not gold
So don't believe what you've been told
And take a chance of being strong
'Cause they'll destroy you if you're wrongOnly lovers act this way, you see
Only lovers are so cruelAll your friends are here tonight
Never ones to miss a fight
Their applause for what you've done
Rings in the darkness when they've gone
Only lovers act this way, you see
Only lovers are so cruelI would die here next to you
I will make your dreams come true
There's so much I had to say
I got lost along the wayAll that glitters is not gold
So don't believe what you've been told
Only lovers act this way, you see
Only lovers are so cruel (so cruel)
Only lovers act this way, you see
Only lovers are so cruel
