Lil Mama

Lip Gloss

(music: Lardie, Russell, Kendall, Spitz / lyrics: Russell)
Twenty minutes left 'til midnight, I'm starin' at the door,
I swore this time I wouldn't wait no more Everytime she leaves me hangin', I suffer and I bleed, but when she gives me lovin', she gimme all I need;
and she knows I want her more than I can bear.
Hey, Little Mama, won'cha come along with me,
I got that mood for loving and I need some company.
Hey, little sister why don'cha come along,
It feels so good, I know it can't be wrong.
Hey hey, Little Mama

Well, I got no paid vacation and I got no limousine, ain't got no star on Hollywood or my picture in a magazine.
But I've more than I can handle, and she's more than I can spend,
so here I am waitin' 'round again;
and she knows I need her more than I can stand.
Right here in your lovin' arms, I wish that I could stay;
endless nights of ecstasy ride my blues away.
Darlin' can't believe that I'm starin' at this door,
I swore last time I wouldn't wait no more.
