Half a World Away

Leveleleven

GIRL:
And in the morning light
Iâ€™ll still be at your side not have to run away
Itâ€™s such a simple thing
The songs two lovers sing should greet a bright new day

BOY:
I donâ€™t feel strong enough
I just feel wrong enough and acting like a fool
And those that we betray
Become a sad clichÃ© how can we be so cruel?

CHORUS:
If we want to build a life together
Then we have to go
Not wait another day

We know we canâ€™t live with empty promises
Leave this tableau
Fly half a world away

GIRL:
Is it just my recall
Or did we have it all and let it slip away?

BOY:
But that was way back when
Those days wonâ€™t come again no matter what you say

TOGETHER:
Guess we were different then
Guess we had to make the choices that we made
But thereâ€™s still you and I
And everything we had -they'll always be the same

CHORUS:
If we want to build a life together
Then we have to go
Not wait another day

We know we canâ€™t live with empty promises
Leave this tableau
Fly half a world away
