You & I

Calum Foad

There's no I in you,
There's no time for us and that's an honest truth.
There's no me in us,
There's no time no face no trust in had enough.
Hold your breath...

Chorus:
Don't speak to me,
The love we've never had,
Don't preach to me,
'Caus I'm not listening
Why don't you hulk away?
I don't even have time to try to stay.
There will be no you and i today.

You're the me, it seem.
I'm that the back to crave that all i lack.
I have changed I'm strong,
I don't need you to trace my life along.
Save your breath...

Chorus

You lit the match and watched me burn,
So let this be a lesson learnt,
Push me aside to weave your turn,
no?

There's no I in you,
There's no time for us and that's an honest truth.
