Little by Little

Radiohead

Turn to nasty now
The dark cell
The pillar of my soul
The last one out of the box
The one who broke this spellLittle by little by hook or by crook
I'm such a tease
And you're such a flirt
Once you've been hurt
You've been around enoughLittle by little by hook or by crook
Never get earnest
Never get judged
I'm no idiot
I should lookYour clue on hold, snapped up
Crawling with my love
The last one out of the box
The one that broke the sealObligation
Complication
Routines and schedules
Drug and kill you
Kill youLittle by little by hook or by crook
Never get nervous
Never get judged
I'm no idiot
I should lookLittle by little by hook or by crook
I'm such a tease
